Sources Locher, J.L. (2000). You could not edit wikipedia using a host supplier or web placement because it hides its IP address, as well as a proxy or VPN. Please help improve it or discuss these problems on the Talk page. If you edit with a minor connection, try to use a Wi-Fi connection and vice versa. Nominated and support. See, for comparison, DrBob's [[User: DrBob / Figures # 2006 | Lenses diagrams]] (in SVC). At least not with the tools I use, there is a good vector drawing tool that is not inkscape that could provide more functionality? There are several reasons why you could be editing using the IP address of a host provider or web placement (as if you are using VPN software or a business network). Use this plenty of appeal only if you think your IP address is, in fact, it is not a host provider or web placement. If you trust that you are not using a web host, you can appeal this block by adding the following text on your conversation page: { (unblock | Reason = Trapped by a location web host, but this host or IP is not an amphitrón website.
